Description

One of the most unusual tomato varieties at all. Mid-very productive variety that stands out above all the unique coloring of the fruit. The plant is about 1.5m tall. Fruits are oval-shaped plum, almost pure white color in the technical maturity, as ripening gradually become pearly pink color. Tomatoes beautiful, dense, very tasty, with a sweet fruity flavor, weighing 20-25g. Strong, healthy growth. From the island of Phuket in the Andaman Sea. Despite the tropical origin safe and well growing in our climate.
