Pink Tomatoes: IVAN KUPALA Tomato

Description

Mid season variety (75-85 days from transplant). Indeterminate regular leaf plant. IVAN KUPALA is a Russian commercial variety (Siberian selection) with high yields of stunningly beautiful pink-colored fruits that are shaped like pears. Very good tomato taste, more sweet than acid, meaty and juicy. Good producer of 150 to 250 gr fruit. Fruits are good in sauce and perfect for canning.
