Description

Variety of the Vesuvius type. Indeterminate plant with regular foliage. The fruits are yellow, small, growing in clusters of about 25-50 gr. Oval shape with pointed nose on the end. Yellow Piennolo tomatoes have become incredibly popular in Italy in recent years and now take over the red varieties. Yellow tomatoes are also great in salads and a tasty and beautiful salad is obtained by mixing yellow and red. Tomato Vesuvio giallo is a fantastic tomato, extremely productive and most tasteful aromatic tomato. Suitable for growing in the open field.
